El Verano Residence Burns Plan Launched For County Highway Improvements Here Flames Sweep Glen Ellen Business Section Sunday Night

SUPERVISOR LOWELL SUGGESTS CREATION OF ROAD DISTRICT

Supervisor Would Aid Project With Funds to Build Vineburg and Petaluma Roads.

Supervisor Lowell, who is being importuned for new highways in Sonoma Valley, particularly for the completion of the Vineburg road begun by former Supervisor Weise and for the much-needed Sonoma-Lakeville highway to connect with the already paved roadway to Petaluma, has launched a plan which would enable the district to get these roads immediately. The plan, as suggested by County Engineer Peugh, is none other than the creation under the act of 1907 of a big road district in Sonoma Valley whose boundaries would be approximately from the Napa line to the Lakeville section, over a wide area, assessed valuation of the area determining just how much territory it would be necessary to include in order to make the improvements.

It would be necessary to sign up just 51 per cent of the assessed valuations in the proposed district in order to proceed with the plan, says the county engineer. Supervisor Lowell explains that the supervisors have pledged all aid possible to road districts to 1927 but that by turning his road money to aid Sonoma Valley's improvements that possibly $75,000 would be available for the 11 miles of proposed highway. The improvement would cost about $18,000 to $20,000 per mile, and with the Supervisor's aid and the creation of a big road district would not be a burden. The tax would be upon land only and not upon improvements. Property owners would have 20 years to pay.

Los Angeles county has over 300 such road districts formed under the 1907 act and claims that prosperity has resulted and land values greatly increased as a result of its magnificent paved roads.

Property owners in this vicinity are being interviewed on the plan and already some of the largest land holders have expressed themselves as favoring the idea.

Because of the high cost of highways and the limited funds with which to build them, no other plan to acquire the improvement is feasible unless the supervisor builds the roads piece-meal, which is an expensive and unsatisfactory process. It has been pointed out by experts that delayed roads cost communities far more money than roads that are built because prosperity follows the good roads and brings in business.

The plan will be thoroughly threshed out and presented to the property owners of the valley before definite steps are taken to form the district.

REV. J. F. BYRNE VISITING IN EAST

Rev. J. F. Byrne has been in the East, where he welcomed home Archbishop Hanna, who has just returned from Europe, and visited many prominent relatives of the Atlantic coast.

No Suspicions About This White Man and Nigger

While sheriffs' posses and officers all over the state were guarding all roads and combing the country for the Woodland negro and white man who on Monday held up the bank and escaped, a perfectly white motorist and a colored man perfectly black, ran the gantlet of detectives between Santa Rosa and Folsom prison Tuesday without once being stopped or questioned. All officers were warned to be on the lookout for a white and black man, so when Deputy Sheriff Ryan got started for Folsom prison with Commodore Turner, negro, sentenced to 10 years for assault with a deadly weapon, he thought he would get a rise out of some amateur sleuth and have to do some explaining. However, Ryan and his prisoner got by with it with flying colors, although Ryan's man was a hardboiled five-term and looked the part. It must have been through Deputy Sheriff Ryan's looks that they got by.

MRS. SILVA WAS STRUCK BY AUTO

Mrs. A. Silva was painfully injured Monday morning while shopping in Sonoma when she stepped from her Ford car to the street and was about to make her way to the sidewalk on Napa street. L. Regusci of Glen Ellen, who was pulling in to the parking space alongside of the Silva car, failed to see Mrs. Silva alight and his car struck the unfortunate woman throwing her to the pavement. She was slightly cut about the head and suffered an abrasion on her arm, but is said to have exonerated Mr. Regusci, believing it to be an unavoidable accident.

Dr. McGrath attended the patient, who is now recovering at her home south of town.

"COVERED WAGON" AT THE DON TOMORROW

The Covered Wagon, the great film drama from the story of Emerson Hough, has been secured by Manager John Mohr for the Don Theatre, where it will be shown Sunday and Monday nights, October 5th and 6th.

Sonoma Valley people who have neglected or been unable to take in this famous and much talked of play will now have the opportunity to see it. The story is one never to be forgotten, reciting the handicaps of the pioneer emigrants who came West to make their fortunes in the early days. A story of love and romance is intermingled with Indian battles, prairie fire and other thrilling episodes.

The prices will be 75 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

Don't fail to attend "The Covered Wagon" on tomorrow or Monday night and see the most talked of moving picture of the year.—adv.

Helpless From Paralytic Stroke J. Andrews Dies Following Rescue From Flames

Yesterday morning at 6 o'clock the John Andrews home west of El Verano took fire from a defective oil stove and instantly the entire structure was in a mass of flames.

Mr. Andrews, lying sick and helpless from a recent paralytic stroke, was the first thought of the family who hastened to his rescue. In getting him out of the burning home his son-in-law, Kenneth Saunders, was badly burned, and Mr. Andrews received painful burns about the legs. Mrs. Andrews and her daughter were also burned in attempting to save some of the family clothes and personal effects.

Mr. Andrews in a very serious condition as a result of the shock was taken to the home of neighbors where he passed away six hours later.

The home was a complete loss, burning to the ground despite the efforts of fire fighters and the Boyes Springs and Valley Fire Department which arrived too late to put out the fire, but saved several adjacent buildings from burning.

The family has the sympathy of the entire community in their trouble.

MRS. WILLIAM DURANT PASSES TO ETERNITY

Death Angel Calls Pioneer Resident Last Saturday After Four Weeks In Hospital.

Mary Ellen Durant, beloved wife of William Durant, pioneer Sonoma Valley resident, passed away in a Santa Rosa hospital Saturday after a brave struggle to overcome the malady for which she was operated upon just four weeks ago. Her apparent recovery from the effects of the operation was most encouraging and her fortitude and hopeful outlook gave her family confidence in her ultimate recovery. Last week, however, her condition grew serious and Saturday morning Mr. Durant was summoned to her bedside. In the presence of her husband, companion of the past 27 years, and comforted to the last by her step-daughter, Mrs. Charles Cheney, the patient passed peacefully away.

The remains were brought to Sonoma and on Monday funeral services were held at the family home on Patton street, Rev. Menkel officiating. (Continued on Page Four)

ASKS PAVING OF THE VALLEY ROAD

Would Amend Resolutions of San Francisco Organization Recommending Program to Committee of Nine

The Valley of the Moon Chamber of Commerce met at the Sonoma Valley Improvement Club house Monday evening, September 29th, with President Serres in the chair. The subject of ratifying the resolutions passed by the Down Town Association and the Chamber of Commerce of San Francisco, in the matter of roads in Marin and Sonoma counties.

It was moved unanimously to endorse the same, and it was further resolved on motion of S. Rosenthal, seconded by W. F. White, to include in the resolutions the recommendations of paving the road from Schellville to Sonoma, and from Caliente to Beltrane, as is shown in blue prints and discussed by the San Francisco committee when in Sonoma.

The resolutions as passed by the San Francisco Down Town Association are as follows:

Whereas, pursuant to authority conferred upon the committee by the

U. S. Threatens Seizure And Dumping of Wine

Starting the first of a series of libel actions against 500,000,000 gallons of wine stored in bonded warehouses in Sonoma Valley, Napa Valley, Livermore Valley and Pajaro Valley, the United States district attorney's office began action in the federal court on Tuesday. This is said to be the most drastic action yet taken by the federal government since the advent of prohibition.

Should the plans of the district attorney's office be successful a wholesale destruction of wines held in California under bond will take place.

The action started Tuesday was against bonded winery No. 2262, at Tres Pinos, near Hollister, the property of Clementi Calleri. In the complaint filed by Alma Myers, assistant United States district attorney, the government asks authority to destroy Calleri's entire stock because of a violation of the Volstead Act.

Calleri was convicted in the federal court recently of selling wine without a permit.

Miss Myers said that the government intends to institute libel action against all wineries whose owners have been convicted of violating the Volstead Act. The action was filed before Federal Judge John Partridge, who immediately issued an order directing United States Marshal Fred L. Esola to seize the winery.

The filing of libel actions is an entirely new method taken by the government against warehouse violators of the Volstead Act.

Recently a decision was rendered holding that the prohibition enforcement office or the Internal Revenue Bureau cannot destroy wine seized from bonded warehouses for violations of the law.

The libel actions are expected to get around this decision, Myers said. The United States attorney's office is now engaged in checking over the records of all convictions of winery owners since the beginning of prohibition. Each violator will be made defendant in a libel action, it is announced.

Highway Is No Dump Ground Say Engineers

The practice of dumping refuse and garbage on the highway must cease, declare officials who report that some Sonoma Valley residents believe that it is nice and easy to load up with all their old junk and waste paper, make a quick run out the paved road for a mile or two and then litter up the highway with it. Watch is being kept for the culprits and as there is a law against this form of nuisance, the practice will be stopped, if arrests have to be made. The garbage question is getting to be a more serious one every day in Sonoma Valley, but let us not get down in the dumps about it or throw rubbish along the state highways, thereby spoiling one of Sonoma's greatest attractions. Here is a problem which the Chamber of Commerce and its increased membership can solve. Join the Chamber of Commerce and tackle this one.

ATTEND PIONEERS' DAY AT SANTA ROSA

The Sonoma County Pioneers' Society, which will hold its annual meeting in Santa Rosa today, is to entertain among its guests two well known Sonoma ladies—daughters of distinguished pioneer families—Mrs. Lulu Vallejo Emparan and Mrs. Amelia Adler Bates. Mrs. Emparan is on the program for two song numbers and Mrs. Bates will give some reminiscences of her girlhood days in old Sonoma.

The pioneers of Sonoma county are fast passing each year and some member and comrade is missed when the society has its reunion.

However, the surviving membership is a wonderful organization and the meeting always one of the fine affairs of the year in Sonoma county.

NEW RURAL CARRIER FOR SONOMA VALLEY

B. H. Miller, former assistant post master at Porterville, California, has been appointed rural carrier on Route A out of Sonoma post office, and succeeds Oscar Lund, temporary carrier and R. A. Dow, former regular rural carrier, who quit the job under fire a few months ago, when the Post Office Department summarily dismissed him.

Mr. Miller's appointment follows an examination held at Santa Rosa, at which six or more applicants took the test for rural carrier, including Mr. Lund. The new carrier recently purchased the Meil ranch, west of Sonoma, and will come here with his wife to reside on his new place. He is an experienced post office man, having been in that service for the past 11 years. He has already made many friends among those who have met him and will be wished success in the local field.

OLD LANDMARKS DESTROYED IN CONFLAGRATION

Former Gaige Meat Market and Sobbe Properties Destroyed; Valuable Merchandise Burned.

The east side of Glen Ellen was swept by a disastrous fire last Sunday evening shortly before 10 o'clock and but for the timely arrival of Chief Walter Stuermer and the Boyes Springs and Valley Fire Department a second block would have gone up in the flames, with more heavy loss.

The fire had its origin in a vacant room over the unoccupied meat market and soon the two story frame structure was a mass of flames. With little water and dry frame structures on both sides, the local fire fighters realized at once the seriousness of the situation and telephoned to the Boyes Springs and Valley Fire Department. While Chief Stuermer was hastening from the Springs with his crew and apparatus over five miles of rough roads and detours, the doomed property owners fought like Trojans to save some of their stock and household goods.

Mrs. Meglin (Bonnevocchi) and family, who occupied one of the store rooms, saved a few cases of canned goods and a few personal effects and handful of furniture. E. Barsi carried out a few possessions also, but the heat soon became so intense that tanks of gasoline in the stores began to explode, precluding further effort at saving anything.

The entire block from the Meglin corner to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Friedger was a seething mass of flames. The Friedgers hastened to remove their furniture to a place of safety and property owners on the other end of the fire gave their attention to saving the Pancrazi building on the opposite corner. Water had about given out, crippling the bucket brigade and making the Pancrazi property appear doomed to destruction when the fire department and chemical engine arrived. Chief Stuermer and his aides promptly played the chemical streams on the smoking walls of Pan's place and thereby saved not only the Pancrazi Resort and auditorium, but many other adjacent buildings in that block.

The frame structures which were completely destroyed in the block where the fire originated were three stores, a butcher shop, two barns and a blacksmith shop and garage. The flames were halted within 15 yards of the Dan Friedger cottage.

Mrs. Meglin, proprietor of the Valley of the Moon Store; E. Barsi, merchant, Rocca Brothers and McAndrews were the three property owners who suffered the heaviest losses with

EL VERANO NEWS

By ARCHIBALD McKIVER

Senator LaFollette badges are being worn by many of his ardent supporters in El Verano. The senator is the big noise wherever politics are being discussed and the arguments often bring out many good points in his favor. Against President Coolidge are the bonus bill, the post office bill and others national matters, while Davis, Democratic candidate, is an advocate of the League of Nations, which is contrary to the principles of the Democratic platform. This issue is a dead one, and would kill off any candidate or party. William Jennings Bryan, one of the figures that helped bring on prohibition, is stumping for Davis on a dry plank, while in a recent speech, it is said, the Democratic candidate hinted he was in favor of wine and beer. LaFollette is the working man's friend and the first candidate to mention in his speech the Ku Klux Klan, which organization he denounced. Then came Davis in an address flaying the Klan and last of all was Coolidge, taking a fling at the hoodoo society. If LaFollette had not come out against the Ku Klux Klan there would never have been a word mentioned in the three cornered presidential fight regarding the standing of the candidates on this question.

Mrs. William Bomhoff has returned home after a several days' visit with Santa Rosa relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Saunders and Mrs. John Andrews motored up to the Harvest Festival in Santa Rosa last Saturday evening and enjoyed the celebration.

Roadmaster Hart of this division has returned from a two weeks' trip East, where he attended the roadmasters' convention in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Shultz and family have moved to San Francisco. They formerly resided in West El Verano, where they were engaged in the poultry business.

Joe Sutter has gone to the rice fields at Colusa and will work the remainder of the season at Ollie Johnson's large place.

A reward of $500 is offered by Paul Vannucci for information which will lead to the arrest of the person who last week administered strychnine to three of his family racing hounds. "Badly Blended," an international champion, was valued at $1000 and was highly prized by the owner. Mr. Vannucci will have the famous dog stuffed and keep it as a remembrance of the famous track dog. Nothing will be left undone to catch the guilty party, who will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law, which provides a prison term at San Quentin.

Mrs. M. H. Fish and daughters of Alameda were spending the week end at their Sonoma Vista home.

A grass fire broke out on the farm at the State Home Sunday and after some hard fighting was brought under control before it reached any of the buildings.

Friends and supporters of Judge Seawell are loud in their praise for the former Sonoma county jurist, in the great stand he took in voting to put Senator LaFollette on the ballot. Regardless of political influence Seawell always works for the people and is a square politician, hence his success in politics. The California political machine, by its latest move, has turned thousands of Golden State voters toward LaFollette who before this decision were supporters of either Coolidge or Davis, but are now shouting loudly for the third man. President Coolidge says LaFollette should be on the California ballot, which shows our national leader is a square man.

Harry Rogers, high-hill ride 'em cowboy, was in town recently saying hello to the natives.

Clarence Chance of San Francisco spent Sunday here at the William C. Chance home.

William Leebody, of the O'Brien ranch, was called to San Francisco on Saturday to attend to business.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Rossi and daughter of Occidental were visiting home folks Sunday.

Bill Flieger, manager of the soft drink parlor at the El Verano Villa, has left for the winter months. He will make a trip to New York City, his old home town, and will return to the Villa at the opening of the summer season next year.

Bill Dowdall of San Francisco was here over the week end, visiting at the Dowdall home.

Joe Davis, veteran employee of the Mare Island navy yard, was here on Sunday visiting relatives.

Eli Bosch, University of California student, left for Berkeley Monday morning on the S. P. Daylight Limited.

Mrs. H. Deppin after a several days' visit here, left for Oakland on Monday morning.

W. Waldow, who recently purchased the old Mouyer place on Riverside Drive, was transacting business in San Francisco Monday.

El Verano volunteer fire fighters rushed to Glen Ellen Sunday night to give assistance in fighting the fire which destroyed the northern part of Glen Ellen's business district. Little could be done to save the burning buildings, but several nearby homes and the Pancrazi hotel were saved through the efforts of a bucket brigade and the Boyes Springs Fire Department, with its two engines.

Joseph Murphy and family were visitors in El Verano Monday. Murphy formerly resided here, and is now connected with a leading labor paper in San Francisco. He says everything looks bright for Bob LaFollette in California and San Francisco is very strong for the third man.

B. H. Miller, former assistant post master at Porterville, has been appointed rural carrier out of Sonoma. Mr. Miller has been in the service for 11 years and recently bought the Meil ranch west of town. His wife will join him and they will reside on their new place. The new carrier is an experienced post office man and during his recent visit made many friends here, who will be pleased to hear that he has been appointed.

Wright Truesdale, son of Mrs. McNeil, after a several weeks' visit here with his mother, has returned to his home in Iowa.

John Quadrio was a business visitor in San Francisco last Monday.

Buck Carpenter has traded his property in Baxterville for Sacramento property. The Carpenters have moved to the capital city, while the new owner will soon take possession of his Sonoma Valley property.

Today, October 4th, is the last day to register. If you haven't registered since the first day of the year, don't fail to do so today and vote on the three cornered presidential fight.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Nolan and family attended the Santa Rosa Harvest Festival last Saturday.

Frankie Denny, Oakland scrapper, was visiting his old friend, John Nuffer, Sunday.

A derailed freight car near Schellville delayed the local S. P. train for three hours last Friday night. The wrecker from Oakland was called out and after several hours the right of way was cleared. A broken wheel on one of the refrigerator cars on the Schellville freight caused the accident. The rails were torn up for a considerable distance.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Glaive and family of San Francisco are spending two weeks here with Mrs. Glaive's mother, Mrs. J. Dutil, at their El Verano summer home.

Milt Peterson and C. Weaver have gone to the rice fields in Sacramento Valley to seek new fortunes. The boys have hired out to Ole Johnson, formerly of this place, and are now full fledged rice glommers.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Norrbom went to Oakland Tuesday, having business at the large Chevrolet plant in that city. On their return they brought home two of the latest model Chevrolets for Sonoma Valley buyers.

Monday evening, as John Andrews old time El Verano resident was attending to his poultry, he suffered a stroke, and is in a dangerous condition at his home here. Mr. Andrews had been in the best of health and neighbors were sorry to learn of his sudden illness. Mrs. F. Venton, his daughter, came up from Oakland on Tuesday, his other daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Saunders, already being here for a visit. His many friends hope for a speedy recovery. (Continued on Page Seven)

BIG HOTEL COMPANY IS COMING THIS WAY

San Rafael's biggest hotel, the Ra fael, has become one of the long chain of 40 hotels and resorts operated by the Van Noy Interstate Company of Kansas City, Mo., which would seem to indicate good business and growth for the leading caravan-sary of Marin's capital.

The Van Noy Company should add to its chain one of Sonoma Valley's famous mineral springs resorts and it is safe to predict that the acquirement of one of our Valley of the Moon hotels would prove one of the best paying and popular units held by the company.

THRIFT

By RUTH ROLAND
Motion Picture Star

The following is an address delivered before the Savings Bank Division of the American Bankers' Association, in the Gold Room of the Congress Hotel, Chicago, on September 29, 1924.

I venture to say that this is the first time an artist of the silver screen has ever appeared before so distinguished a group of bankers for the purpose of speaking on the subject of "Thrift." Contrary to the general impression, we have in the motion picture business many people who are thrifty. I have always been very much interested in the subject, especially in its influence on our American boys and girls. Teach them to be thrifty and you will have a thrifty nation.

I believe thrift should be a household word in every American home. I believe that parents while rearing their children should give special attention to thrift. Unfortunately, far too many parents neglect their duty in this regard—perhaps they do not appreciate the great importance of it. We are all interested in making America a thrifty nation. Happiness and thrift go hand in hand. Extravagance and waste lead to discontent and misery. It is the thrifty home that is the happy home.

But someone says, "teaching our American boys and girls to be thrifty is a personal matter for the parents in each respective home to settle for themselves." But what if they neglect it—should it end there, and millions of children grow up to manhood and womanhood, spendthrifts? How about education? Many parents leave the education of their children entirely up to the teacher in the schoolroom. The same is true in thrift. Let our schools teach thrift; it is important that they do. Because many parents are indifferent to this great need, those of us who can help are called upon to shoulder the burden which neglectful parents should bear. If the rising generation is not taught to be thrifty, our nation is in danger for national extravagance leads to ruin.

Who is it that is demanding: "Down with the present form of government. Down with the individual ownership of property" Who is it that is continually complaining of business conditions in this country? It's the person who has nothing to divide.

Doubtless you have observed that the thrifty citizen is not a complaining, dissatisfied, discontented citizen. Let a business depression come along and the first person to complain is the person who has not saved, and not the person who is thrifty. Therefore, I say, thrift should be instilled in the life of every boy and girl in order that we may continue to be a happy nation. If parents neglect to train their children to save, then I believe it is the patriotic duty of our banks and our schools to furnish the proper training, and this can best be accomplished through school savings.

I wish each of you could spend a day with me visiting the schools of Los Angeles. You would get an inspiration you wouldn't soon forget as hundreds of school children pass by in review, each class flying a thrift banner. You would get still another inspiration as you visit school rooms after school room that is 100 per cent, that is to say, every child has a savings account.

Think of it! Over 50,000 school children in Los Angeles under the age of 13 years, having savings accounts today as a result of school savings. These children have saved and have to their credit in savings accounts over $550,000. This represents only two years' work in the elementary schools of one city.

Every banker and teacher who is participating in school savings is doing a tremendously important work. You are not only helping school children to help themselves, but you are also laying the foundation for a practice that will make this a still greater nation than it is today. I congratulate you for what you have done in the past. I hope you will continue the great work with increased zeal.

If I may make one suggestion in closing, it is this: Cultivate the friendship of the boys and girls. Make them feel that they are welcome at your bank. Encourage them to open savings accounts regardless of how small an amount they have to deposit. Urge them to save systematically and to come to our bank at frequent intervals. When they come, receive them with a smile, give them every consideration, and send them on their way feeling that your bank is their friend. Help them to save.

If every banker and every teacher will contribute something to the teaching and practice of thrift on the part of our boys and girls, America will continue to be a nation of happy people.

GOOD WELL DEVELOPED BY GROWERS OF BULBS

The Deiner bulb growing company which this year planted a large acreage of gladioli on the Ralph Murphy ranch which they will take over on January 1st, has developed a splendid flow of water on the place. The well was bored by D. V. Quadsen and is now pumping a continuous stream of water which will be used to irrigate and for storage purposes.

The bulb growers were a month late in getting planting started on their new holdings in Sonoma Valley but declare, despite the fact and the dry season that they have had quite a successful year.

GOVERNOR SCORES HIT AT NAPA

Governor Richardson came down from Sacramento to attend the convention of Assessors from various counties of the State, who met in Napa last week. He was keen to talk to these county officials, these men of business, in order to tell them first hand some of the accomplishments and accusations of his administration. He struck out from the shoulder in true Richardsonian fashion and as a result the story of this exceptional representative of the people is being told and retold up and down the counties of the State, where Assessor's opinions have weight. Richardson proudly reviewed his work, flayed his enemies and praised his friends. His talk was so good we want all Sonoma Valley to read it.

The Governor declared that he was greatly pleased to be able to attend the Assessors' Convention and was glad to know that he was the first Governor who had ever done so. "I have broken many other precedents during the short time I have been Governor," he declared. "I attended the recent encampment of the National Guard. I am the commander-in-chief of the National Guard and I considered that it was my business to be there. I am told that other Governors refused to attend the encampments because it was considered poor politics to do so. I did not think of the politics end of it. I knew it was my duty to be there, and that was enough for me. I have also attended every session of the Board of Regents of the University of California, something no other Governor ever did. I believed I should be there to learn first-hand of the needs of the State's great university. I have visited personally every state institution since I have been Governor for I have felt myself the head of a great corporation and I have believed it necessary to keep in close touch with its every activity, and I want to say to you that the institutions of the State are in better shape than ever before; their inmates are better fed, better clothed and better housed than ever before despite the reduced budget."

"I am attempting to put over a business administration of the affairs of the State of California, not a political one. Just what the result will be I don't know. Everybody is for economy until it hits him. You cut a politician off the pay roll and he yells like hell and the 'yellow press' make their attacks. But I shall feel satisfied for I shall know that my administration has been of real value to the people of this State.

"I am glad to be here to meet with you Assessors. You have many problems and I wish to help you solve them. But California has too many laws and I believe that we should pass just as few new ones as possible. I have a great mass of bills before me for my signature at every session of the Legislature, but I have adopted the policy of believing every bill guilty until it proves its innocence.

The Governor referred to the recent forest fire situation in California as follows:

"I have stated and I repeat that California is in more danger from the 'yellow press fires' than from forest fires. It is not California's business to fight forest fires. That is the concern of the private lumber companies, or power companies or individuals who own these timber lands. In the Federal forest reserves it is the duty of the Federal government to fight these fires. California has no fire fighting apparatus nor no State organization of fire fighters. It is the business of those who own the property affected to take the necessary steps to protect it. The State has three parks. We take care of them. The State has a Forestry Bureau. It has had more money to spend in the past year than ever before. And I can say this despite the cries of the 'yellow journals' and lying politicians."

The Governor spoke at some length on the recent "hoof and mouth disease epidemic." He declared that the germ came into this country on an army transport from the Philippines and was scattered from Mare Island to an adjoining farm where it first broke out. Thence it spread to Alameda county and elsewhere in the State. "We put our State officials immediately to work to stamp out the disease and they co-operated with the governmental officials who came later. Personally I took a deep interest in this work. I even witnessed the killing and burial of many herds of infected cattle. I told many members of Cruelty to Animal Societies who protested, that we were not being cruel to the animals; that we were just killing them. We had to. The disease has now been effectively stamped out. The banks of the State came to our aid and assisted us financially and I am confident that the next Legislature will make it possible for the State to bear its share of paying these cattlemen for the heavy losses they sustained. I appointed Owen Duffy as chief appraiser in this important work and he performed his duties faithfully and fairly."

In closing the Governor declared that his administration had cut the budget but had been able to do so without interfering with the State's activities. "The only mistake we made" said the Governor, "was in not cutting it more."

He declared that the State was not bankrupt but that it still had plenty of money on hand for all proper purposes, and that he believed much had been accomplished by the businesslike administration he had put into effect at Sacramento.

LA FOLLETTE AND THE SQUARE DEAL

Senator LaFollette, candidate for President, and the choice of thousands of California electors, should have had a chance to go down to November defeat in unmistakable manner. With the ruling of the California Supreme Court which forces him to be the candidate of Socialist electors he and his followers will claim that La Follette's candidacy was unfairly presented in California, handicapped by Socialist prejudice and technical quibbling.

We do not believe that LaFollette is the type of man for President of the United States, nor represents the type of government, if he can make any claim for a type of government, by which the Coolidge administration should be supplanted. Nevertheless, LaFollette was entitled to every opportunity to be on the California ballot and his constituency, too, have the right to have a voice in affairs in the same manner as other constituencies.

Technically we believe the eminent jurists correct in their decision ruling him out, but the day and age of technical rigidity should have long since been relegated to the scrap heap and common sense, justice and even-handed, understandable and apparent should prevail.

Malcontent has been compounded in California and throughout the entire country through this decision. A fair poll of all the people who are interested enough to vote for President of the United States is only fair cover prohibition agent. regardless of the man they desire to vote for or the preliminaries incident thereto. Let no barriers be set up retarding the franchise. Too many so-called active good citizens refuse to exercise their rights, regardless of crisis or circumstances. Perhaps a later, duly accredited LaFollette would have brought out this vote, a much to be desired momentum.

The recent disruption in Petaluma school circles, a similar situation in Cloverdale and another school disturbance in Napa, just a few cases of disruption of which we know because of their proximity to us, make it look as though nefarious influences were at work to destroy school morale as one means of disrupting government and creating unrest.

School fires throughout the State are also said to be giving satisfaction to a certain element of social destructionists.

FIRE DEPARTMENT NEWS

Harvey M. Toy spent the week at his summer home in Sonoma Vista where he is transforming the former ranch house grounds into a veritable bower of beauty. A substantial donation to the fund for the debt of the Valley Angel marked his appreciation of the vital need of fire protection for this community of homes. You are invited to attend the regular meeting of the fire department at the Sonoma Vista club house next Monday night. Report of the committee on by-laws will be up for consideration.

Joe Felder Jr. had the misfortune to break his arm while cranking his car on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Patrick of a pioneer Napa county family were guests of Sonoma friends last Sunday.

Miss Marguerite Brunsch, contralto who recently made her San Francisco debut in grand opera after many years study and triumphs abroad, was a former chum of Mrs. Thos. Denny and often visited at the Duhring home in Sonoma.

Mrs. Hesse, mother of Mrs. H. D. Burmester who was expected home from Germany after several months visit there was disappointed in the arrival of her passport and sold her ticket entitling her to passage to this country only to get her passport a few days later. It was then impossible to arrange a sailing date and she may not be home now until next spring. Her relatives here were greatly disappointed.

Mrs. Gatchell who recently suffered a severe fall is recovering at her Boyes Springs home.

Save Both the Fish and Power Is Plea of Eureka Leaders

Eureka.—"Save both the fish and power."

This is the plea of the Humboldt county supervisors and Eureka Chamber of Commerce in their campaign to defeat initiative measure, Number Eleven, at the November election. For the ostensible purpose of protecting commercial and sport fishing the California Fish and Game Commission is sponsoring this measure, which would forever prevent development of Klamath river power resources.

According to the supervisors and chamber of commerce officials the measure must be defeated in order to conserve and develop the great natural resources of California. In this manner not only will the power development be made a reality, but the fish saved as well, they declared.

The Eureka chamber points out that the United States government wants the power developed and has guaranteed to protect the fish under "existing conditions," thus shattering all arguments of development foes.

SPEND 75 MILLIONS IF INITIATIVE LOSES

Expenditures of more than $75,000,000 for construction work alone will be required in the development of the Klamath river water power resources, according to present plans for the proposed project. Before such an expenditure is possible, it will first be necessary, it is pointed out, to defeat initiative measure, Number Eleven, at the election in November. This measure seeks to forever prevent the development of the unappropriated power resources of the Klamath river. Friends of progressive development declare this measure if carried will rob California of the benefits derived from the power and the expenditure of such a huge sum within the state.

KLAMATH RIVER HAS ONLY POWER IN U. S. RIGHT AT TIDEWATER

Klamath river has the only great power project in America right at tidewater.

Within forty miles of ocean transportation on the lower Klamath river there can be developed 200,000 horsepower of electric energy, almost twice greater than is planned at Muscle Shoals, on the Tennessee river. Potential possibilities of the Klamath river are said to exceed 500,000 h. p.

In order to make these possibilities a reality, voters throughout California are working for the emphatic defeat at the November election, of initiative measure, Number Eleven, which seeks to forever prevent the development of the unappropriated power resources of the Klamath river.

DUCK SEASON OPENED

The duck season opened October first and many local hunters hied themselves to the marshes in quest of birds.

The best showing reported was that of Geo. and Bill Baines, who with Bob Filippini went to the rice fields and got the limit.

John Basileu of El Verano who holds the bass record of the season, got quite a few ducks in the local marshes as did Jack Poulson. The majority of hunters report duck shooting poor as yet.

LESSON NO. 5

LIGHTING THE LIVING ROOM

The living room is usually not only the largest room in the house, but it is also the room that is most used. In most homes it serves as the sitting room, the parlor, the library and the music room.

Because we do so many different things in this room, we need lighting that can be changed and varied to suit our purpose. For example, if we wish to entertain our friends by dancing or playing cards, we should be able to flood the whole room with plenty of soft, cheerful light; if we wish to read or sew, we should be able to have the light come over our shoulder from behind a favorite chair; if we wish to play the piano and sing, we should have the music well lighted. At all times the lighting effect should be pleasant and attractive.

To get these effects, we need three different kinds of lighting equipment in the room. First we have a fixture hung from the ceiling with which we can flood the room with light; then we have table lamps and floor lamps which are portable and can be moved about as furniture is rearranged, to give a good reading light. Finally, we as long as it is wide, two ceiling fixtures should be used.

There are several kinds of fixtures which will provide good lighting in the living room. Some of these are shown in the Home Lighting Primer on page 23. Some are shown in the next picture.

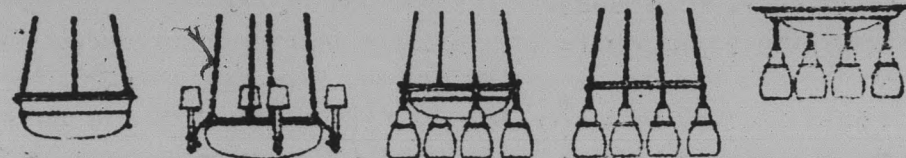

The bulbs in these fixtures vary in number, but the total watts necessary for good lighting is from 100 to 250 watts.

The shades may be of glass, silk or parchment. They should completely hide the bulb and should be dense enough so that the whole surface of the shade is evenly lighted. A bright spot in the center of the shade means that the shade is not dense enough, and that some glare is present.

The use of all frosted bulbs will often do away with shadows of chains which would otherwise be cast on the ceiling.

PORTABLE LAMPS

Portable lamps include floor lamps, table lamps and small pedestal lamps, candlesticks, torches, etc., for mantel and bookcase. The may have bracket fixtures on the walls, which give us charming spots of colored light—never too bright and only used to add attractive decoration to our other lighting.

"Bulbs" are known by the amount of electricity it takes to light them. The unit by which they are classified is the "Watt," and bills for electric lighting current are rendered in terms of a "kilowatt-hour," which is one thousand watts for one hour, or one hundred watts for ten hours.

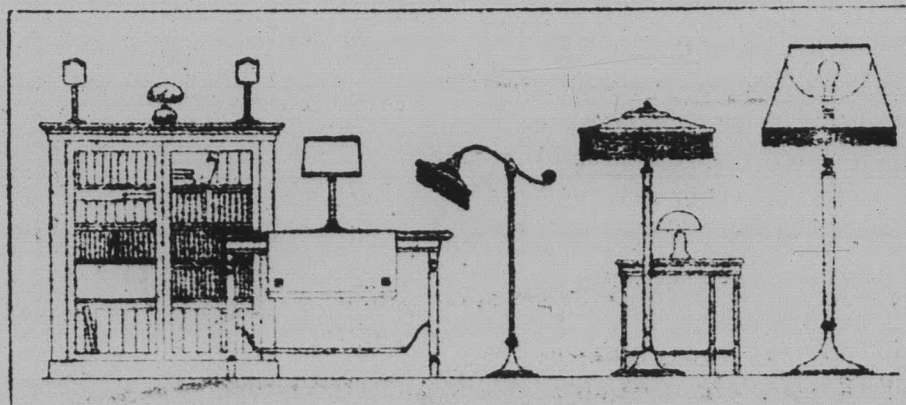

The total watts needed in any room depends upon the size of the room, the kind of fixtures used, the color of the decorations and the lighting effect wanted. In most rooms good lighting may require as little as one or as much as five watts of bulbs for each square foot of floor area in the room.

Here are the things to think about when we want to be sure best portable lamps have shades which are deep enough to hide the bulbs and dense enough to prevent glare. Some are built to send more light up toward the ceiling as well as down toward the table or floor. These use large bulbs and are designed to provide general lighting by reflection from the ceiling as well as local lighting. Portable lamps from which more is required than merely decoration will need bulbs which have a total of 60 to 100-watts or more; in the interests of economy, those which are merely a decoration do not need more than a 25-watt bulb. Duplex outlets in the baseboard permit the greatest convenience and use of portable lamps for lighting.

WALL BRACKETS

Sometimes people try to provide general lighting for the entire room with wall brackets. Except under unusual circumstances, this leads to one result—the use of larger bulbs whose brightness is annoying we have good lighting in the living room. 1. Do we have plenty of light where we need it? 2. Are all the bulbs well shaded so that we do not have any glare? 3. Does the lighting equipment look well in the room, and does it fit both lighted and unlighted with the furniture and woodwork?

THE CEILING FIXTURE

Unless the living room is very large only one fixture is needed on the ceiling. However, if the room is long and narrow—perhaps twice

Bracket fixtures on the walls are merely decorative spots of colored light. Since they are almost always directly in front of the eyes of someone in the room, a light bright enough to furnish useful light soon becomes annoying and causes eyestrain.

It is most important that these be well shaded, so that glare does not prevent their effectiveness as a beautiful decoration. The use of bulbs larger than the 15 or 25-watt size cannot be recommended.

The pallbearers were Messrs. George Breitenbach, F. Dobbel, P. Meeder, L. States, G. Seipp and J. B. Parrent.

Mary Ellen Durant was born in Iowa 71 years ago and crossed the plains to California when a little child. Her girlhood in Sonoma with her foster-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Van Every, won her the respect and admiration of a wide circle of friends. Twenty-seven years ago she was well to William Durant, then superintendent of the Halstead ranch, and the union was a most happy one. Mr. and Mrs. Durant have resided in Sonoma Valley almost continuously during this time and the sympathy of the community where they have lived and prospered goes out to the husband in his sad bereavement. Three step-children who loved deceased as a mother will miss her kindly presence in the home which they so often visited.

Mr. Durant plans to go to Sparks, Nevada, with his daughter, Mrs. Cheney, and may there take up his permanent residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cheney and their sons, William and wife of Jamestown, and Norman Cheney of Sparks, were here for the funeral. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Revie were also here for the last sad rites.

CITY TRUSTEES HAD INTERESTING MEETING

The regular October meeting of the city trustees was held Wednesday night, Trustees Bulotti, Lindley and Valente being present. The minutes of previous meeting were read and approved including the meeting in September when the city tax rate was fixed at $2.10.

Bills were distributed, audited and ordered paid. The recorder and marshal filed their reports, the marshal reporting $800.60 collected from the business license tax. The curb grade for his property in the Chase tract was asked by Mr. Reynolds.

Mayor Bulotti was officially invited to answer the roll call of old Missions at the Serra Pilgrimage Celebration at the Carmel Mission October 12th. He is asked to make a five minute talk on the Sonoma Mission.

City Engineer Specht was instructed to write a letter to the State Board of Health asking permission to try out the Santa Rosa sewage disposal plan as in effect in that city.

Plans and estimate of 1288 sq ft of paving at the Duhring store and Plaza corner was shown the Board.

GEORGE HUBBARD HERE FROM PASO ROBLES

George Hubbard, formerly the foreman of the old Nordwell ranch, now Sonoma Vista, but at the present time a resident of Paso Robles, visited Sonoma Valley this week, renewing old friendships and also his Index-Tribune subscription.

Mr. Hubbard is a genial man with kindly remembrances of old Sonoma. He came up to San Francisco to negotiate for some new "crocker" in order to get the full benefit of the good cats to which he has long been accustomed. He says he arranged for a fine set.

MR. AND MRS. PETE COMPTON ARRIVE FROM TEXAS

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Compton and little daughter are back at Boyes Springs after a successful season in Texas where Compton has been playing baseball. They drove from Texas in their car and are delighted to be back at the springs where they have a legion of friends.

They have rented the new cottage of Mrs. M. Bride on the highway and will winter there.

Other professional ball players and their families are expected at Boyes Springs later on for it is conceded to be the finest training-camp ground in the United States.

Mrs. Joseph Vella and daughter have returned from a four days' visit with relatives in Oakland.

The Trend Is Toward Tailored Styles

TAILORED footwear are leading models for Fall and Winter. Oxfords predominate for street wear and are suitable for many purposes.

The model shown here is one of the most favored among the young and well dressed. Tan Calf Uppers with Goodyear Welt Soles and Rubber Heels, made on the new roundish toe last, making the foot appear small and shorter without sacrificing foot comfort.

BANK ROBBER SUSPECTS TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

Following the $12,000 robbery of the Bank of Italy of Woodland on Monday, two men, one white and one colored, answering somewhat the description of the robbers, appeared at Mullen's Store, El Verano, and inquired the way to Glen Ellen. As the duo looked hard-boiled and appeared nervous the deputy sheriff was notified of their presence in the valley and they were trailed north and finally taken into custody. Both were able to give a satisfactory explanation, clearing them of implication in any robbery, so the sheriff's office decided that this black and white man was not the ones who pulled off the hold job in Yolo county. Sheriffs' posses everywhere are searching for the real bandits.

JOE VAN WYL, NOTED MUSICIAN, DIES HERE

Joe Van Wyl, former member of the Marine Band during the Spanish-American War, and a member of the Musicians Union of San Francisco died here Thursday after a lingering illness. Death came at the home on Patton street, where friends had cared for him for several weeks past.

Deceased was a native of Switzerland, aged 56 years. He leaves two sisters in the old country residents of the Lake of Four Cantons district, and in 1913 went back there to visit them.

Van Wyl was a noted clarinet player who came to this country in 1888 but when his health failed he settled in Sonoma and for a time was employed at the Union Hotel.

The funeral will be held on Sunday morning from the Bates undertaking parlors.

ENJOYED BRIDGE PARTY IN SAN FRANCISCO

Members of the local Bridge Club are still enthusiastic over the lovely trip to San Francisco last week when they were entertained by Mrs. Mickelson at her home in Sea Cliff, a beautifully appointed luncheon and cards were the order of the afternoon. Mrs. Burlingame winning the prize at bridge.

Those who motored down to enjoy Mrs. Mickelson's hospitality were Mesdames W. Clewe, H. Wickler, R. Watt, Charles Cutter, A. Luchinger, C. Burlingame, H. Pauli, R. Hotz and Miss Pemberton. Other guests were Mrs. Henry Lutgens of Sacramento and Mrs. Hund.

MRS. CANNOBIO HOME FOLLOWING OPERATION

Mrs. S. Cannobio of Agua Caliente is convalescing rapidly at her home following the operation for appendicitis in the Morton Hospital in San Francisco recently. Mrs. Cannobio was taken ill while visiting in the city and her case was promptly diagnosed and she underwent the operation almost immediately. The attending surgeon used the new method of spinal anesthesia with the result that the patient knew everything that was going on but felt no pain.

Her mother, Mrs. Baccigalupi, and her daughter, Louise, presided over the Cannobio home during her absence. Last Sunday, in honor of the patient's homecoming, there was a family reunion, sisters from Santa Rosa, San Francisco and her daughter Miss Marie Cannobio of San Francisco being present.

TWO ROBBERIES ARE REPORTED

Sonoma Valley had two robberies during the past week, when homes were entered and money and jewelry stolen. Some time between 8 and 10 o'clock Thursday night the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harper of El Verano was entered by robbers and $80 stolen.

The Haffy Coops home near Vineburg was also the scene of a robbery, Mrs. Coops reporting to the deputy sheriff the loss of valuables from her dresser.

The officer is at work on the case and is following some important clues.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS WILL BE ENTERTAINED

Past Grand Master William Sherman, F. & A. M., and Grand Lecturer Baker of the Order, will be in Sonoma this evening and expect to have a very pleasant visit while in the valley.

The distinguished visitors will be entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Burmester.

The coming of Past Grand Master Sherman to Sonoma is always eagerly looked forward to, as he is an old Sonoma boy with a legion of friends here.

DESCENDANT OF SLOAT VISITS VALLEJO MUSEUM

A recent visitor at Lachryma Montis, the old Vallejo home, and its interesting museum, was Mrs. Midean a great grand-daughter of Commodore Sloat, who raised the first American flag at Monterey in 1846.

The lady was interested and delighted to meet General Vallejo's daughter and talk with her about old California history.

FORCIBLE ENTRY IS CLAIMED IN ACTION

Suit for forcible entry and retainer was filed in the superior court this week by Robert Gordon against Win. Caulfield, who, Gordon, claims, now occupies the place in Sonoma county known as the "O'Brien Place," and his retention of the place has cost the plaintiff $500, it is said. E. J. MAKES ANALYSIS OF ROAD EXPENDITURES

Approximately $320,000,000 has been expended for the construction and the maintenance of state and county highways, roads and bridges in California during the past twelve and one-half years according to a statement made public by Arthur E. Loder, manager of the good roads bureau of the California State Automobile Association. Of this total, $101,367,201, or 31.4 per cent has been expended on state highways in construction, maintenance and reconstruction.

Loder, who is a member of the Committee of Nine which is now engaged in a survey of the state highway system and is formulating a business-like plan for future highway financing, construction and procedure to recommend to the next legislature, has just made a thorough analysis of expenditures on California state and county roads and highways since the beginning of 1912.

Total expenditure of money by the state and counties on roads and highways was near its maximum in the fiscal year ending in 1923, according to the Automobile Association's highway engineer. During this year a total of $44,458,000 was put into California roads, the state highway department expending approximately 35.3 per cent of the total amount.

Loder said that his analysis showed that since motor vehicle taxes became available for state and county road work in 1914, motor vehicle operators have contributed $46,813,343, or 14.6 per cent toward the total state and county expenditures for roads in the last 12 years. Half of this amount went to the state and half to the counties.

During the current fiscal year the two cent gasoline tax, the $3.00 flat registration fee and the weight taxes on commercial vehicles, which were adopted by the last legislature, will provide over $17,000,000 which will be equally divided between the state and the counties, Loder said. The state's portion of this fund can be used only for maintenance and reconstruction—none of it for new work.

All new state highway construction has been financed by a tax on state corporations which is to be regarded as an indirect consumption tax, according to Loder, being ultimately shared by every consumer in proportion as he consumes commodities. The maintenance of the state highways with certain reconstruction work has been paid for by the motorist who has to date contributed approximately 21.1 per cent of the total funds used on the state highway system.

JUDGE SEAWELL TO SPEAK AT MONTEREY

Justice Emmett Seawell of the Supreme Court of California has accepted an invitation to respond to the subject "General M. G. Vallejo" at the Monterey celebration of the adoption of the first constitution of California. The celebration will be held at California's first capital on October 10th, and will be a notable occasion.

Judge Seawell, authority on California history, is eminently qualified to speak on the phase of the state government having to do with the first constitutional congress of which General Vallejo was a distinguished member.

Mrs. L. V. Empanan has supplied the wealth of material procured by Judge Seawell with intimate details of the General's family life. The address should be not only a brilliant one, but of particular historic value.

Mrs. Empanan and a party of relatives and friends plan to attend the celebration at Monterey, where her father was born and entered upon the brilliant career which reached its heyday here in Sonoma during the splendid, idle forties.

MRS. WATT PASSED AWAY

Mrs. Sarah Ellen Watt passed away Saturday after an illness of long duration. She was aged 74 years and came from her native state Missouri to California when a baby.

Her late husband Richard Watt was an uncle of R. L. Watt the prominent Schellville orchardist.

The funeral was from the home of her cousin Miss Octavia Copeland on Broadway Monday morning with interment in Mountain Cemetery.

JIMMY O'CONNELL BARRED FROM BASEBALL

On charges of a crooked deal to which Jimmy O'Connell, former $75,000 baseball star finally plead guilty, admitting a bribe offer in the national league game of last Saturday, O'Connell has been suspended for all time and can never again play in the professional game.

O'Connell trained here last season and was the idol of local fans. He and his pretty young wife occupied the Kelly home at Boyes Springs.

MOON VALLEY ROMANCE OF BEAUTIFUL ACTRESS

The pleasing news has leaked out of Boyes Springs that Isabelle Fletcher Ayres, former leading lady of several big theatrical companies and divorced wife of Dudley Ayres, is to be married to Carl Steffen, a prominent cafe man, now manager of Fellers Clubhouse. Mrs. Ayres some months ago received her decree from her actor husband and came here to go into business at Boyes Springs on account of the health of her little son. She made a nice investment at the Springs buying and building on the highway where she established the Smart Shop.

The romance which is to terminate in her marriage to Mr. Steffen blossomed here in the Valley of the Moon. Mr. Steffen has several fine offers to manage big cafes in the South but the future plans of the happy couple are still indefinite.

ANNA MILITELLO TO WED IN OAKLAND

Miss Anna Militello, who recently returned from Buffalo, N. Y., to California, accompanied by her father, has announced her engagement to Sam Caits of Oakland. The engagement, which will culminate in a big wedding on October 19th, accounts for the young lady's return to the Golden State, where she visited last year and where she won the heart of the lucky groom-to-be. After returning East and gaining the consent of her parents, Miss Militello came back here, arriving a few weeks ago. Her father will give her an elaborate wedding which will be solemnized in Oakland with Mr. and Mrs. Pete Militello (Madeline Sutter) as attendants.

The bride-to-be is a beautiful brunette, well known in El Verano and vicinity while the guest of her brothers here.

HONEYMOON AT SOBRE VISTA

Mr. and Mrs. K. Walsh, nee Eleanor Spreckels, were honeymooning at the beautiful Spreckels estate, Sobre Vista, near here. The groom, Mr. Walsh, was given a joyous stag party at the ranch a few days before the wedding, which was a brilliant church affair in San Francisco.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Spreckels and sister of Howard Spreckels, who presides over the family's beautiful country place in the Valley of the Moon and has made many friends here.

MRS. JOHN STEINER GOES TO HOSPITAL

Mrs. John Steiner of the Union Hotel, has been at St. Luke's Hospital in San Francisco for the past 10 days under treatment for varicose veins. The many friends of this esteemed Sonoma resident will wish for her speedy recovery and return home much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Keechler of the Jones ranch visited Mrs. Steiner on Thursday and found her benefiting greatly from the rest and treatments.

High School News

(By KENNETH CORMAN)

The basket balls of the Sonoma Valley Union High School are again inflated and the eager shouts and pat-pat of rubber soled shoes worn on the nimble feet of players that are tried and true, certainly make us feel sure of future victories.

Short bobbed locks are growing—shorter. A boy's cut with sideburns seems to be the latest, but thanks to the barbers, or possibly, the girls, most of them have not proceeded beyond the "shingle." Who can tell us what's coming next?

Red-heads must be smart. One of them (it wasn't a boy, either) "copped" the highest mark in the recent U. S. history test.

Many prospects for the basket ball and base ball squads are showing up among the freshmen. Though they find themselves rather limited in the practice of the former game, they may rest assured that they will be granted more freedom later.

Friday night, September 26th, the Freshmen were given a reception by the upper classmen of the school. After a short program, the Frosh were brought onto the stage, and introduced. They were especially honored when large bows of the school colors were pinned on them with safety pins. In this manner they were easily distinguished from the students. Dancing was enjoyed by all.

Base ball is again being practiced. Mike Kiser and Bill Duffin are the chief contestants for pitcher, while the man behind the plate this spring will be either Angelo Signorelli or Arthur Schults.

Hot dog! The Boys' League has been organized now, so what chance has the poor girls with their infinitesimal organization. Following are the officers of the League: President, Herbert Tracy; vice president, Mike Kiser; secretary, Chester Horn; treasurer, Walter Carter.

Hurrah for the Seniors and Juniors. These are the noble classes that won the dance floor for Monday noon. The Seniors and Juniors were 100 per cent in regard to the sale of student body cards. The Seniors sold their in the record time of four and one-half minutes, and the Juniors got rid of theirs in fourteen and one-half minutes. The Freshmen and Sophomores also tried.

Under the trained and watchful eye of their instructor, Mr. Benton, the mechanics class is progressing rapidly in their work of re-arranging the equipment and installing new machinery. Needless to say, Mr. Benton has plenty of confidence in his class.

The fine gravel walks around the building are almost completed and this winter we shall have fewer colds and drier feet, not to mention cleaner floors. Considering the latter this must prove gratifying to the janitor.

PEOPLE WOULD PAY IF RAILROADS WERE GOVERNMENT OWNED

Third Party Plan Would Take Revenue From States Involved.

If the railroads of the United States should be taken over, owned and operated by the government, the vast taxes now paid by the railroads would have to be paid by the people, according to Will R. Wood, member of congress from Indiana and chairman of the Republican National Congressional committee. Mr. Wood has made a careful analysis of the situation, noting the tax payments by the railroads to the several state governments last year.

If the roads were owned by the government they would be tax free just as the post offices now are. The states would still need the money, just as they do now, and as a result additional taxes would have to be levied on the citizens.

Mr. Wood's complete analysis follows: "Robert M. LaFollette, the Socialist-third party candidate for President, is trying to convince 6,000,000 farmers that the surest cure for their ills is to bring about government ownership of all the railroads in the country; that, if this is done, transportation rates of all kinds would be immediately reduced.

"There are a lot of things, however, that would transpire if this scheme were carried out, that Senator LaFollette is woefully silent upon. He is not telling the farmers that the government pays no taxes on its properties and that it would pay no taxes on the railroads of the country if it owned them. He is not telling them that the railroads are paying into the various county and state treasuries of the United States more than $300,000,000 annually, which sum would have to be paid, in large part, by the farmers, once the government began the ownership of the railroads.

"Take the state of Wisconsin for instance: Last year the railroads paid the state of Wisconsin $7,321,976 in taxes. In the state of Minnesota the railroads paid, last year, a total tax to the state of $8,425,982. In Iowa they paid $6,849,708; in Kansas, $6,739,346; in Indiana, $13,064,627. In these five states alone the railroads paid $42,336,644 of the public tax burden. I have taken the figures in the above named states because they are largely agricultural and in the event that the government became the owner of the railroads of the country the farmers of these states would have to bear the greatest part of the burden in paying these additional taxes.

"In the state of Iowa if the LaFollette scheme were carried out, it would mean an increase of $32 in taxes an annually levied against each farm in the state, or $2.80 for each man, woman and child in the state. In Kansas the burden would be $40 against each farm or $3.90 for each resident of that state. In Minnesota, where Mr. LaFollette is making a strong appeal for votes, he would take away from the farmer, under the government ownership plan, a tax income now paid by the railroads and place it as an additional assessment of $47 against each farm in the state, or $3.80 against each person residing in that commonwealth.

"I am told that, in one county in Montana, the total tax paid by the railroads amounts to 38.51 per cent of the entire levy. In midsummer of this year there was $104,102 of the total tax assessed in that county delinquent, upon which a penalty had been laid. This is convincing evidence that this county was already taxed much more than it was able to pay. Yet Mr. LaFollette would take away 38½ per cent of the tax revenue of this county, now being paid by the railroads, and place it as an additional burden upon the individual taxpayer.

"In my own state of Indiana, the railroads pay $13,094,627 in taxes annually. The total tax of the state is $124,866,790. The railroads share of this tax is over 10 per cent. If Mr. LaFollette's scheme were put into effect, the individual taxpayer of Indiana would have to pay this additional sum of $13,094,627 each year. In Marion county the railroads pay annually $715,588 in taxes, a very substantial item in the total of the taxes paid in that county.

"The figures that I have given, applicable to the five agricultural states named, differ only in degree from those that might be given for every other state in the Union.

"Not only would the farmers be burdened by the payment of these additional taxes, should the government become the owners of the railroads, but they would also have an additional burden to bear, the size of which it is hard to ascertain, in the shape of deficits occurring in the operation of the railroads of the country for maintenance, extensions and upkeep.

"Some idea of what this burden would be, may be had, however, by recalling the experience during the period of government operation of the railroads under the management of William G. McAdoo, when the amount of the deficit over the earnings of those railroads taken over by the government was more than a million dollars a day, exclusive of the payment of exorbitant salaries to an army of officers.

"The farmers of this country, before they accept the panacea of government ownership of railroads, which is but a forerunner of the socialistic state, will do well to 'Stop, Look and Listen.'"

Trustee Savings Accounts Give Protection To Minors

Other Savings Accounts at Your Service Include

- Individual Savings
- Joint Savings
- Trust Savings
- Association Savings
- Co-Partnership Savings Account

Because it affords exceptional protective features, the Trustee Savings Account is used widely by parents who wish to provide an easily accessible fund of money for the minor or minors of the family.

This is a savings account in the name, let us say, of "John Doe" for his little son, "Jimmy Doe." It earns regular savings account interest and anyone may place deposits.

Funds can be withdrawn only, however, on the signature of "John Doe, trustee." In case of death of the trustee the funds are payable to the trustor, "Jimmy Doe," or if he is still a minor, to "Jimmy's" legal representative.

If double trusteeship is preferable, then the account is payable on the signature of either trustee, or to the surviving trustee; but should both trustees die, trustor, or his legal representative receives the funds.

We will be glad to answer any inquiry regarding Trustee Savings Accounts.

GRATEFUL PATIENT WOULD HELP OTHER CHILDREN

The following nice letter, teeming with the spirit of thankfulness and desire to help others, is written by Robbley Harbot, grandson of Mrs. Kate Buchan, who has recently received some of the benefactions of the Shriners at their wonderful hospital in San Francisco:

"Editor Index-Tribune:

"Now that I am home again after a year spent in the Shriners Hospital for crippled children, I feel it only fair to tell what has been done for me, for perhaps through just a word spoken by me, some other boy or girl may seize the opportunity to be made well and strong. The year spent in the hospital has surely benefited me more than I ever realized. My crippled foot, though still in a cast, is straightened and ere long I know I shall stand on my own feet."

"My case was one of the simplest. Many of the boys who have never walked a step in their lives are today walking like normal, healthy boys. I do hope if any of the readers of this paper find themselves in San Francisco on a Thursday or Sunday afternoon they will take a No. 17 car at the Ferry and ride out to Twentieth avenue and Lawton street and visit the hospital, between the hours of 2 to 4 p. m. Visitors are heartily welcomed.

A teacher conducts regular classes daily, and I was able to do some of my school work. A splendid radio and phonograph were there for our amusement. Hardly a day passed without special treats, such as motion pictures, vaudeville acts from the theatres, visitors and besides that we had a nice library to choose books from. Every now and then the convalescents were taken for motor rides about the city.

I made many friends while there and I was far from lonesome; in fact, I miss the boys very much and have resolved not to lose interest in the hospital. I hope the time will come when I may be in a position to help some crippled child to health as the Shriners have helped me. All that is necessary to gain admittance so as to be helped by an operation or other means is to fill out an application blank and have some Shriner sign it and send it to the hospital and the child will be sent for as soon as there is a bed vacant. The cures are perfectly wonderful and there is no charge for the operation, care or board. It is all given gratis by the Shriners, who have taken this method of doing a kind deed.

I hope the parents of any crippled child who read this will give their boy or girl the chance to get well.

ROBBLEY B. HARBOT.

MARKETS

NEWS, COMMENT AND FIGURES

Chicago, Sept. 29. Development of an extremely bullish situation abroad with heavy export takings of wheat were largely instrumental in keeping values on the upgrade the greater part of last week. At the last net gains were 6% to 7% as compared with a week ago. Rye showed more strength than wheat and gained 9% to 12% for the week. Corn, after breaking 13 1/4c from the high of the previous week, rallied as rapidly as it went down and deferred futures were 3 1/4 to 5 1/4c higher, while September was off 1/4. The latter was affected by increased offerings of grain to arrive. Oats were 1/4c to 1 1/4c higher for the week. Lard gained 60 to 65 cents, and bellies 2 1/2 for the week, while ribs were 16 1/2c lower. Foreign buyers have apparently taken fright over the world's wheat situation. The seaboard estimated sales of 3,500,000 bushels made to Europe during Saturday, largely of American grain. Italy was in the market for supplies for the first time in some weeks.

San Francisco, Sept. 29. HOGS: Compared to a week ago: Bulk medium grade, 150-160-lb. Californias, $11; medium 250-lb. butchers, $10; packing sows, $8; good to choice eastern, 180-200-lb., $11.25 to $11.50. CATTLE: Compared to a week ago: Good 1,100-lb. steers scarce, firm; few loads fed steers from packers' ranches; four loads good 1,100-lb. Californias, $7.75; few loads Nevada, $7.75; bulk medium 1,000-lb. Californias, $7.75 to $7.85; few loads, $7.50. Good cows steady; uniform loads quotable $5.25; bulk, 950-lb. around, $4.75 to $5; medium and common numerous, some commission, other from packers' holdings.

CALVES: Compared to a week ago: Receipts excessive, market weak throughout, practically demoralized, holdover liberal, little improvement this week expected, numerous loads commission affecting beef and lamb sales.

SHEEP: Compared to a week ago: Firm on light lambs, weak to 2c lower on heavy lambs dressed. Bulk, 77-80-lb. island lambs, $11.25 to $11.50; few loads, 80-lb., $11 to $11.25; culls, $9; few good 120-lb. ewes, $4.50; good 100-lb. yearlings, $7.50; choice full wool, under 70 lbs., quotable $12.50.

The live stock industries do not face the serious shortage of hays and roughage that was feared. Individual bands will enter the winter months with a limited supply, but if autumn rains bring feed in the lowlands and foothills that normally produce winter feeds there will be sufficient feed to carry through until the first of April. The most recent forecast is for 4,532,000 tons for 1924. On April 1 there remained on farms 471,000 tons of the hay crop of 1923. Upon this basis the combined amount available from April 1, 1924, to April, 1925, is 5,003,000 tons. During the twelve months beginning April 1, 1924, the dairy industry will consume 2,376,000 tons and the live stock about 1,370,000 tons, or a total of 4,746,000. About 257,000 tons will be available for swine and slaughter cattle in transit.

Prices on lima beans were advanced with good stock selling from 7 to 7 1/4c per pound. Best Brussels sprouts sold around 6c per pound. Large size yellow and brown onions were bringing as high as $2 per cwt. at the wharf.

Cantaloupes were in very limited supply and practically no fancy stock was available. Grapes for juice purposes were weaker and some recessions in prices were reported. The supply of seedless grapes was slightly in excess of Saturday's demand. Best pomegranates were offered at $1.50 per Los Angeles lug. Newton pippin apples are selling around $1.20 per four-tier box at Watsonville.

TWO DEMOCRATIC ELECTORIAL CANDIDATES QUIT THE RACE

San Francisco. — Two Democratic candidates for presidential election named at the party state convention at Sacramento, have resigned on the question, it is said, of whether or not a national bank director is a federal official under the federal law and therefore ineligible to serve as an elector. Those who withdrew are Robert M. Fitzgerald of Oakland, and former Lieutenant Governor William T. Jeter of Santa Cruz.

The committee on vacancies filled the places by naming James F. Peck, attorney, of San Francisco and Oakland, for the Sixth congress district, succeeding Fitzgerald, and Thomas A. Stork, Jr., newspaper man of Santa Barbara, in the Eighth congress district in lieu of Jeter.

Cashier and Cash Gene New York. — George R. Christian, shy and reticent cashier of the New York stock exchange firm of Day & Heaton, took $1,500,000 of the firm's cash and securities with him when he disappeared August 14.

Wales in Calgary Calgary, Alta. — The prince of Wales arrived here in a driving sleet storm. The royal special stopped here forty-six minutes, afterward proceeding to High River. The prince was suffering from a slight cold.
